

Luka Brkovic

Javascript Developer

📍 Wuppertal, Germany

Hey there! I'm Luka, a self-taught JavaScript enthusiast with a knack for turning ideas into dynamic web applications.

I started my developer journey one year ago with Javascript. My focus area is front-end development with Next(React), utilizing TypeScript. I am also skilled in back-end development with Node.js and have experience using TypeScript in that context as well.

Skills

Frontend

For the frontend purpose, I like to write my project in React(Nextjs) because of the amazing possibilities of server/client rendering, it is well optimized and SEO friendly. I have a deep appreciation for Svelte due to its unique approach to front-end development, because it not framework it compiler.

Backend

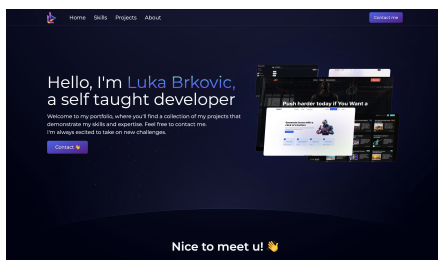

Mostly I write fullstack applications with Nextjs or SvelteKit but I have skills with Express/Fastify too.

Other skills

Database tools such as sql.

Figma/Adobe xd for designing webpages.
